

EVERYTHING I HAVE

Monty Plummer

(Verse 1)

In this heart beating
There's a fire I can't put out
In this soul breathing
There is life that's flowing now
And I can't stop singing
For the love that You poured out
Has got me feeling
So alive I wanna shout

(Chorus)

Everything I have is Yours
I give my life 'cause You gave Yours
And all I am Is all for You

Took my heart Made it new
By what You've done I know that You
Gave all You are For all of me
Everything

(Tag)

Woah Woah
Woah Everything

(Verse 2)

When I was broken
It's You who took the pain
You gave me hope and
Showed me there's a better way
With my eyes now open
I see clearly every day
It's You I'm holding
I will never be the same

(Bridge)

With You I feel alive and Renewed And every time when I see You
Everything else fades
