

RUNNING ONLY AFTER YOU

Monty Plummer

(Verse1)

This new life is free to take
You opened up the door and You made a way
I know there is no mistake
I'm living in the light of a brand new day

(Pre-Chorus)

Everything I need is found in You
Everything I need is found in You

(Chorus)

We're running only after You
We're trustin' everything You do
We're running only after You
We're running only after

(Verse2)

At Your voice the heavens shake
And by Your Word alone every chain will break
With eyes up, heart wide awake
I'm focusing on every promise that You make
